

Verity Quinn

Special Counsel, ACCC

Verity Quinn is a Special Counsel at the ACCC. Together with her job share partner, Deb Mayall, she advises across the wide range of functions of the agency, with a particular background in the ACCC's investigation and litigation of Part IV matters and the Australian Consumer Law.

Prior to joining the ACCC, Verity was part of the Competition Team at Allens Linklaters. She also spent two years as inhouse counsel at Shell in London, has worked as a Federal Court judge's associate, and was associate to the President of the Australian Competition Tribunal.

Verity has served on the board of Fitted for Work and been an ambassador for the Human Rights Law Centre.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES