

Raoul Wilson SC

Barrister, Eight Wentworth Chambers

Raoul Wilson SC was appointed a Senior Counsel in 2013. He advises and appears both at first instance on appeal and in the High Court in contested Wills cases, often involving disputes between family interests, charities and competing corporate entities. He also advises and appears in Protective matters in the Supreme Court of New South Wales and appears in the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia. Raoul's membership of committees includes the Family Law Committee of the New South Wales Bar Association, and the joint committee of the Association and the Law Society that considered the provisions of the Succession Amendment (Family Provision) Act 2008 (NSW). Raoul is a regular seminar presenter and an experienced Mediator in Wills and Estate matters referred by the Supreme Court of New South Wales for private mediation. Since 2016 he has been listed annually as 'Leading Senior Counsel' in Doyle's Guide, for Wills and Estate Litigation Barristers – NSW.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES