

Esterina Azzi

Senior Associate, McCullough Robertson Lawyers

Esterina Azzi, an Accredited Specialist in Wills and Estates, has practised exclusively in wills, estates and succession law since her admission as a legal practitioner in 2015. She assists clients with comprehensive estate planning strategies, and with navigating complex estate administration and litigation dilemmas. Esterina has also advised on unique succession issues, contributing to legislative reform. She is a member of the Elder Law, Capacity & Succession Committee of the Law Society of NSW, and of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) Australia Newsletter Sub-Committee; and a founding member and Secretary of the STEP NSW Emerging Professionals Network Sub-Committee. Esterina was involved in the editing and publication of the Elder Law Review, publishing several articles in the journal. She was also a member of the inaugural Editorial Board for Wills, Probate and Administration Practice (New South Wales), and co-authored monthly Bulletin case updates and annual updates.
