

Jennifer Vuu

Special Counsel, HWL Ebsworth Lawyers

Jennifer Vuu, an Accredited Specialist in Wills & Estates Law, practises exclusively in Wills and Estates across all areas of estate planning, probate, contentious and non-contentious estate administration, estate litigation, and trusts. Jennifer specialises in complex estate matters, including family provision claims, statutory will applications, complex probate (such as grants for informal documents, lost wills, copy wills and foreign persons), and intestacy. She holds a Master of Applied Law, majoring in Wills and Estates, from the College of Law. She is a registered Trust and Estate Practitioner with The Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners, a global professional association for practitioners advising on trusts and estates. In 2022 and 2023, Jennifer was recognised by Doyle's Guide as a Wills, Estates & Succession Planning 'Rising Star' for NSW and ACT. She is a regular contributing author to the Law Society of NSW and presenter of seminars on succession law.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES