

Clint Harding

Partner, Arnold Bloch Leibler Lawyers & Advisors

Clint Harding has a Bachelor of Commerce and a Bachelor of Laws from Auckland University, and a Master of Taxation from the University of Sydney. He was admitted in 1999 and became a partner at Arnold Bloch Leibler in 2012, practising in the firm's taxation department. Clint has particular expertise in corporate and international tax, the taxation of financial instruments and transactions, and the management of tax audits and disputes with the Australian Tax Office. His clients have included both public and private organisations, very high net wealth individuals, and not-for-profits. Clint received the Tax Institute's Tax Adviser of the Year Award in 2018, and the Tax Institute's 2023 Community Champion Award, for services to the tax profession. He is recognised by Best Lawyers® International, Chambers Asia Pacific and the Legal 500 Asia Pacific in the area of tax law, and has been ranked a 'Preeminent' tax practitioner in Doyle's Guide.
