

Mary Rebehy

Barrister, Lachlan Macquarie Chambers

Claire Cantrall was admitted to the Bar in 2014 and is a member of the New South Wales Bar Association. She has extensive experience in the Family Law jurisdiction, having acted for parties and children in parenting matters as well as acting in financial matters. Claire regularly delivers Continuing Legal Education in family law covering various legal topics, including presentations for the Law Society of NSW, the College of Law, and NSW Young Lawyers Family Law seminars. Claire was recently named in Doyle's Guide as a 'Pre-eminent' Family Law Junior Counsel in New South Wales and Australia, and has contributed to the Council of Law Reporting for the NSW Family Law project.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES