

Martha Barnett

Barrister, Culwulla Chambers

Martha Barnett SC was called to the New South Wales Bar in 2010. She practises mainly in family law, but also conducts adoption matters and coronial inquests. Martha took Silk in October 2022. For the past 11 years she has been a member of Culwulla Chambers, Sydney. Martha was awarded a PhD in law from the University of Sydney in 2014, for a thesis titled 'Evolution: Procedural Innovation in Abduction Convention Determinations in Australia'. Originally from Canada, Martha completed a Bachelor of Arts at the University of Alberta before migrating to Australia. She undertook an LLB at the University of Sydney and graduated with First Class Honours.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES