

Richard Cheney SC

Barrister, Greenway Chambers

Richard Cheney SC specialises in construction, infrastructure, insurance and professional negligence law and appears at trial and appellate level. Richard also regularly acts as a mediator, arbitrator and referee. He brings a depth of practical knowledge to construction litigation, having a Bachelor of Building Degree and having previously practised as a site engineer on Sydney high-rise projects. Richard was appointed Senior Counsel in 2011 and is a NSW Bar Association BarADR approved arbitrator. He has been recognised many times in Doyle's Guide: in 2021 and 2022 as 'Recommended' – Leading Professional Indemnity Senior Counsel (NSW); in 2019, 2020, 2021 and 2023, as 'Leading Construction & Infrastructure Senior Counsel (NSW)'; in 2023, as 'Leading Construction & Infrastructure Senior Counsel (Australia)'; and in 2018, as 'Recommended' in the category 'Leading Insurance Senior Counsel (Australia)'. Richard has also been recognised in Best Lawyers in Australia each year since 2019 under the categories Construction/Infrastructure Law and Insurance Law.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES