

Natalie Darcy

Senior Solicitor Estate Planning, NSW Trustee and Guardian

Natalie Darcy is a Senior Solicitor Estate Planning at NSW Trustee and Guardian, where she heads the Estate Planning team. She is an Accredited Specialist in Wills and Estates law, having attained accreditation in 2009. She was admitted as a solicitor in 2002 and has worked almost exclusively in the area of wills and estates since 2003. Natalie has extensive experience in all aspects of wills and estates and trust law, including estate planning, estate and trust administration and litigation. Natalie has worked in private practice as well as the government sector and has also worked as an Adjunct Lecturer in the College of Law's Masters of Applied Law, Wills and Estates program. Natalie has presented numerous legal professional development courses and creates and presents in house training programmes for NSW Trustee and Guardian. Natalie is a current member of the Law Society of NSW Elder Law, Succession and Capacity Committee.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES