

Michael Rennie

Barrister, 6 St James Hall Chambers

Michael Rennie was called to the NSW Bar in 2011 and has had a career in public law since 2000. Michael specialises in public and commercial law with a particular focus on regulatory matters and the management of sensitive information.

Recent matters include:

- challenging subpoenas on behalf of ASIC: R v Bigatton [2022] NSWDC 144 and R v Bigatton (No 2) [2023] NSWDC 290;
- merit review in State and Federal decisions in the solar panel and air cargo industries: Bell Solar Pty Ltd v Commissioner for Fair Trading (NSW) [2021] NSWATOD 70; Wiseway Logistics Pty Ltd and Secretary, Department of Home Affairs [2024] AATA 2250.
- interlocutory appeal and suppression orders in the Federal Court: Wiseway Logistics Pty Ltd v Secretary, Department of Home Affairs [2024] FCA 427; Wiseway Logistics Pty Ltd v Secretary, Department of Home Affairs (No 3) [2024] FCA 463

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES