

Hugh Stowe

Barrister, 5 Wentworth Chambers

Hugh Stowe has been at the Bar since 2000.

He has a wide ranging commercial and equity practice, with specialization in corporations law and insolvency. He appears predominantly in the Supreme Court and Federal Court, doing trial and appellate work.

Before coming to the bar, Mr Stowe practised as a solicitor at the firms now known as King & Wood Mallesons and Herbert Smith Freehills, and was associate to the Chief Justice of the Federal Court of Australia.

Mr Stowe has a Masters of Law from Cambridge, and has lectured in law at the University of Durham, UK.

Mr Stowe has published on expert evidence preparation, settlement theory and practice, ethics and in various other fields. He is also a qualified practicing mediator.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES