

Anna Cox

Executive Cost Consultant, Pattison Hardman

Anna was first admitted to practice in 1987 and has a Masters in Business Law from the University of Sydney. She has extensive experience in many areas of litigation, and has also worked as a costs consultant since 2002. From July 2014 to May 2018 Anna ran her own practice, which included advising and assisting other practitioners, and her own clients, in legal costs matters.

Since that time, she has continued to act in costs matters, as well as in a range of litigation matters in both state and federal courts. She has prepared bills of costs in a number of state and federal jurisdictions, as well as preparing objections and other submissions in costs matters. From time to time she has appeared on taxations in the federal courts as well as acting for clients in costs litigation.

Anna has presented at seminars and workshops on issues relating to legal costs, including for the NSW State Legal Conference and Lawcover.
