

Patricia Muscat

Barrister, 13 Wentworth Chambers

Patricia was called to the Bar in 2019. She practices in wills and estates (including contested probate and family provision matters), protective matters and general equity.

Since coming to the Bar, she has appeared led and unled in hearings, motions and directions hearings, primarily in the Equity Division of the Supreme Court. She has appeared in a number of noteworthy cases including the Benz Estate ([2022] NSWSC 534 and [2022] NSWSC 668), Soulos Estate ([2022] NSWSC 1507 and [2023] NSWCA 243) and Meduri Estate ([2023] NSWSC 113).

Prior to being called to the Bar, Patricia was an Associate at Uther Webster and Evans and the tipstaff to the then Family Provision List Judge, Hallen J.

Patricia was named in the Doyles Guide as a rising star in wills and estates in 2016-2018. Since being called to the Bar, she has been named as a recommended, and later leading, wills and estates litigation junior counsel between 2020 and 2023.

