

Judicial Registrar Lynne Jackson

Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia

Lynne Jackson was appointed as a Registrar to the then Family Court of Australia in 2017 and is currently a Judicial Registrar of the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia based in Newcastle.

After obtaining her law degree and prior to joining the Court Lynne worked exclusively in family law initially in private practice and later with the Hunter Community Legal Centre and Newcastle University Law School.

Lynne holds a Bachelor of Social Work and Master of Arts from the University of NSW, a Bachelor of Laws from the University of Newcastle and a Graduate Diploma of Family Dispute Resolution.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES