

Carmine Santone

Director, Santone Lawyers

Carmine, an Accredited Specialist in Personal Injury Law, specialises in workers' compensation, motor vehicle accident claims and public liability claims. In 2004 Carmine joined a large national litigation practice as a Senior Associate and was responsible for successfully completing large-scale litigation. In 2007 he was given the responsibility of opening a new branch of the practice at Parramatta. Under his leadership, the Parramatta practice became a prominent venture in Western Sydney. In October 2010 Carmine, and his wife Tina, founded Santone Lawyers. In 2011 Carmine was appointed to the Legal Aid Civil Law Panel. In 2022 he was listed as Preeminent in the Doyles Guide for Leading Work Injury Compensation Lawyers (Plaintiff) – New South Wales. Carmine also performs pro bono work for a number of organisations, including community legal centres, such as Marrickville Legal Centre.
